Judge suspended for child abuse

'Stop hearing cases until cleared'

By Arnold M. Noman

THE SUPREME COURT HAS RECOMMENDED Calabarzan Regional Trial Court Judge Adelyn Reyes before he had been convicted for child abuse by a Quezon City court on July 17.

The high court said Reyes would be suspended "from performing her judicial functions while awaiting the final resolution of her criminal cases in said further orders from the court."

Senior Justice Presencia Estanislao Wilson had earlier asked the high court to suspend the judge from hearing cases until she is cleared of the child abuse charges.

Judge Reyes was found convicted on two counts of crime, child abuse under Republic Act 7610, which involves sexual exploitation and abuse her son of such conviction, but current mental qualifications to do the work of a judge is under a check, he said.

Wilson added, "Judges working under in a court are not entitled to a hearing for judges whose mental qualifications are not placed in serious doubt."

Reyes was charged with two counts of child abuse in 2009 by a teenage girl who had studied in a school in the judge's jurisdiction.

Hold graft case filed in Sandigan, Binay asks

By Tere K. Quinsin

MANILA (AP) — JUSTICE DEPARTMENT ASKED the Sandiganbayan to suspend the proceedings on a graft case filed against him and several other officials over an alleged scam involving the purchase of office facilities from 1999 to 2001.

In a petition filed on Monday, Binay along with one of his executives, said there was "due diligence" when the case against them was filed on the Sandiganbayan. He added that the case was the result of a "political intrigue" from the Sandiganbayan had conducted based on a "false" Commission on Audit report.

"Since the Commission found the investigation to be correct, any and all proceedings conducted before the Sandiganbayan Court such as, and including with, the determination of probable cause for purposes of determining the propriety of issuing warrants of arrest, should be held in abeyance," the report's petition said.

The graft case alleged against Binay, wife Gloria—who was Mayor of Alabang at the time of the purchase—two other officials and five others who were based on a complaint filed by Binay's political aide, Roberto Brillantes.

In 2008, Binay filed the complaint after a CGA report found alleged irregularities in the purchase of P221 million worth of office facilities for the new Manila City Hall from 1999 to 2001. The report said the building was allegedly rigged to favor certain companies, while the facilities purchased was overpriced by more P50 million.

One gun killed two men—PNP

By Alvin Pags

ONE GUN KILLED TWO TO KILL FORMER congressman leader (PNP) "Shoy" Legaspi and (PNP) Chato, the security chief of former Mayor Antonio Rara, according to the Philippine National Police (PNP).

This led Director Marcelo Rib, chief of the PNP Directorate for Investigation and Criminal Management (DINM), to conclude that Chato killing last Sept. 10 was most likely premeditated by the gun.

He said a "cross-reaction" had taken place between the two men. The PNP Crime Laboratory on the 41st day answered from the Chato murder revealed that it was found from the same gun used in the killing of Legaspi. "There is a big possibility this (Chato murder) was carried out by the left," he added.

Chato was shot dead in Tuguegarao City while Legaspi was shot dead in Manila. Legaspi, an 80-year-old, was granted leave in February 2001 on the grounds of the Philippines, (Legaspi) resigns. Both have been arrested.

Iran warns of retaliation if UN imposes sanctions

TORONTO, PRESSURE MAHMOUD AHMADINEJAD has warned Iranian officials that any sanctions imposed by the UN Security Council could be a disaster for Iran.

The warning comes amid an escalating global dispute between Iran and the UN Security Council over its nuclear program.

Ahmadinejad did not specify what kind of retaliation Iran might impose if imposed and then—UNSC's imposed further sanctions—has always insisted it will not launch a nuclear war in the world.

"We will also impose sanctions on them," Ahmadinejad said in a speech in Tehran to support the UN Security Council's decision to impose further sanctions on Iran's nuclear program.

"In the past 20 years Iran has always been a peaceful country," he said, adding that "Iran is not a country that is a threat to the world."

"They do have a right to have a nuclear program," he said, adding that "Iran is not a country that is a threat to the world."

UN Security Council chooses Ban Ki-moon as next UN chief

UNITED NATIONS—The UN Security Council on Monday elected Ban Ki-moon as its next Secretary-General, a move that was widely expected. Ban, 57, is a South Korean diplomat and a member of the United Nations Secretariat-General. He is the first South Korean to hold the post.

A "very busy heart," Ban told a press conference. "Despite the numerous security threats the international community faces, South Korea has gone ahead with a nuclear test," he said.

"With this act of provocation, South Korea has discarded its obligations under the Joint Declaration adopted as the six-party talks to suspend test and develop confidence building measures," Ban said.

Ban said he will work to build trust and confidence between the North and South Korea. He will also work to build trust and confidence between the United States and North Korea.

From certain disaster to miracle victory

THE UST FIGHTING TIGERS had the perfect recipe for a championship season.

Their last Final Four appearance was four years ago. Their team was composed mostly of freshmen and sophomores with one much experience and exposure to the ring.

A promising rookie, John Lee Ang, died of a heart attack after suffering from a heart attack. Ang was a former UST Fighting Tigers who was drafted championship (1980) during his senior year as a player for the UST.

For the biggest punch line of them all was they were led by a coach named, Pido Larios, a former UST Fighting Tigers who was drafted championship (1980) during his senior year as a player for the UST.

The odds were against the Tigers. Then, they got their first taste of victory from the defending champions (1980) during his senior year as a player for the UST.

The expectations were shattered as they dropped their first game. The team's first game was against the Ateneo Blue Eagles. It was the Tigers' most lopsided victory with a 26-point advantage.

After the first round of elimination, the team found themselves scraping the bottom of the team standings.

Everybody thought the season was over for the Tigers. Well, almost everybody except for Coach Larios. He called his team for a meeting to boost their morale, his "Three Ps—Pain, Perseverance, and Patience."

"Mind you, it has to be in that order. The team always comes first," explained one captain after another.

Unmindful of the team's struggles in the league, the Tigers took one game at a time, stacking three straight victories. The momentum of their win was evident against the seemingly invincible Eagles who had an undefeated 10-0 record and were going for a second round of nine straight wins.

The Tigers won their game without their main man—John Ang. Anthony Paguia and backup point guard Jan Gomez—who had been sidelined for a while.

Clearly it was a message sent to the team Ang was in better than just yet. They got their Final Four after leading a run with the Ateneo Falcons in which the third spot and avoid a premature meet-up with the top-ranked Blue Eagles.

With their backs against the wall, they defeated the Red Warriors who had a 10-0 record advantage. They landed into the Final Four for the first time in seven years.

HERE IS A TEAM SO TIGHTLY bonded that when you ask a question, each player gives the same answer. Ask them what their winning formula is, and they automatically reply, "Focus, have a good attitude, have the desire to win, and pray."

A talk with their coach, Ray Banaag, reveals that San Beda's victory over the PSL Davao team was not a fluke. It was the result of their hard work, their focus, and their desire to win. Banaag, who has coached the team for many years, says that the team's success is a result of their hard work and their focus on their game.

Lion hearts

San Beda's triumphant win in the NCAA finals broke a 28-year title drought

"From the first time meeting, this has been our guiding principle. Here, faith is our strength, and faith in our coaches, faith in each other, and the desire to win is our motto."

The victory was especially sweet as it was San Beda's first time to win the championship in 28 years. Back when Banaag was still coaching the PSL Davao team, he was approached by a San Beda coach to coach the team. Banaag, who has coached the team for many years, says that the team's success is a result of their hard work and their focus on their game.

"I came in the middle of last year's season," he recalls. "We had our last game on Aug. 27, 2008. Then I gave the team three days off and we came back to train in September for the new year's season. I told them, if they wanted to be championship, they had to work hard."

There were other obstacles as well. Banaag found himself faced with the task of training down the team to 15 players from the original 18, and decided to split and see how to go about it. Then, during a team-building exercise in Cebu, he played to find out which players were the best. He found that the team's success is a result of their hard work and their focus on their game.

"There was simply no way around it. God's hand was there to guide me. His cannot elude, but I did from the equation," he says.

The championship moment is a moment of triumph for the team and the school. The campus of San Beda is filled with students wearing championship-related merchandise: shirts, banners, jackets, etc.

Despite this, the players remain grounded. With the championship medal safely under their belt, the San Beda Lions have gone past their previous wins and are now focused on the next season.

Banaag tells his team, "We made the entire year coach Banaag. Now it's time to move on." "It means we want to win more championships," he adds. "But this is just a preparation for the bigger things in life. Everything has a purpose. God gave me this opportunity to be a coach, a guide, and a mentor to them. There is still a lot of things to teach, and a lot of things to learn as coaches."

Stef and Drae are voted off from 'Idol's' Final Twelve

By Harold R. Cruz

PHILIPPINE IDOL FINALISTS Stephanie "Stef" Lazaro and Andre "Time" Ybarber, the last two contestants to be voted off from ABC 5's singing talent search program, are convinced they got booted out not because they are inferior singers but because they "didn't get enough votes."

"Unlike the other contestants, I don't have a solid group of voters," Time told Inquirer Entertainment in an interview on Monday.

Stef agreed: "I just didn't connect with the audience. They all have their favorites. Maybe I wasn't as big as them. Last week's votes. My performance at that time wasn't my best. Two of the three judges weren't pleased," he explained.

Time, the 26-year-old from Cagayan de Oro, also believed that his overall ranking in the Top 12 was affected because the show chose his "cover song" last week's theme. "My performance at that time wasn't my best. Two of the three judges weren't pleased," he explained.

Last week, the show intended to first eliminate those who did not perform. However, the show decided to postpone the elimination until the next week.

So when he heard the competition, Time said he would continue helping the show. He said he would continue helping the show. He said he would continue helping the show. He said he would continue helping the show.

Time, 27, is considering the possibility of taking a deal with a recording company. "I'm not sure if I want to do that with my family and friends," he added the move to 1-year-old Chai.

When your name was called on Tuesday night, what was on your mind?

Time: Honestly, if I could think about then was whether I could still sing my songs. I didn't have enough sleep on Saturday night and my throat was hurting. The fact that I was voted off didn't make it any better.

Stef: I felt nothing. I just went back to my room. I felt nothing. I just went back to my room.

How do you feel about the results?

Stef: I feel like I'm leaving. Leaving tonight. It's the end of the journey for me. I'll miss the guys. I received a lot of messages from people saying they were shocked. They said for me. Right now, I feel overwhelmed with the love and support of family and friends. Actually, a lady who approached me last night said she'll consider for me to be the next champion. She said she'll think me over. I'm proud. I ended up performing her.

I feel sad when people say they're not going to see me. They're saying for me. I don't know where they're going for me. I don't know where they're going for me.

I feel relieved. I've been through a lot of pressure having to perform every week. I ended up spending time with my family and friends.

What were some of the things you wanted to sing but didn't get the chance to?

Stef: The song "My Heart" was one of the songs I had hoped to sing in the final, but they didn't allow me to sing it.

Stef: I really wanted to sing the song "My Heart" but they didn't allow me to sing it. I really wanted to sing the song "My Heart" but they didn't allow me to sing it.

How do you feel about the results?

Stef: I really wanted to go to the top. I really wanted to go to the top. I really wanted to go to the top. I really wanted to go to the top.

Stef: I don't really know. A lot more singing. "Where did I get all the votes when I was voted off?" What did I do? I don't know. I don't know. I don't know. I don't know.

Now that you've been booted out, who will you vote for and why?
